MRS. JANET AUSTIN CURTIS Box 567 Williamsburg, Va.

Dear MRS. CURTIS:

On a recent census search which I requested MR. JOHN FREDERICK DORMAN to make, I asked him to make a search for one NATHANIEL AUSTIN family, and when he replied, he suggested that I contact you. Therefore, here is what information I have on this family.

NATHANIEL AUSTIN, b July , 1775 probably Conn. or R.I., marr date unknown, d March 1865, buried Perrysburg, N.Y. Married BETSY DODGE, b date unknown, d when 96. Issue:

SILAS A. b Feb 9, 1803, marr , d Dec 1, 1880
 HARRIET, b , 1906, marr , d .
 MARIETTE, b , marr , d
 JULIA ANNE b , marr , d
 NANCY b 1826, marr , d
 ROBERT b 1809, marr in the 1850's, d

My reference was a family record compiled by a great-aunt and although the children's dates are skimpy, I hope the parents dates will provide enough information.

If you have any information concerning NATHANIEL AUSTIN I would appreciate hearing from you. I don't know if you require a fee, but I am willing to pay one if you request it.

Yours, sincerely,

/s/
DAVID STRINGFELLOW

THOMAS AUSTIN of Cayuga Co., N.Y. (immigrant)

THOMAS AUSTIN was an immigrant to Jersey City, N.J., where he engaged in making pottery. He removed to Cayuga {Cayuga?} Co., N.Y. This is probably the THOMAS AUSTIN, merchant of Philadelphia, Pa. who bought parts of lots 39-40 in Twp 7 first range of Ontario Co., N.Y., bounding on Crooked Lake (Cayuga Co.) on Dec 28, 1811, perhaps not, since grandson was born in England 1819.

Children:

JOHN AUSTIN (Sr.) b June 14, 1793; d Sep 22, 1842 ae 50 yr 4 mo; marr Nov 20-30, 1812 ELIZABETH (---), b Feb 17, 1794. Res. Cato, N.Y. (She was living ae 67 in 1860 census) Children:

1. MARY, b Feb 6, 1814
2. JOHN C., b Sep 22, 1817
- * 3. THOMAS, b Aug 1, 1819 (England)

Report of cases -- In the Supreme Court of Judicature (etc) in the state of New York, by WILLIAM JOHNSON, Vol. 14 (1818) pp 405,406, 405, & 406 (4 pages).

Action of ejectment, brought to recover part of lot No. 73, Geneva (late Milton), Cayuga Co., N.Y., JEREMIAH AUSTIN, a Rev soldier was slain in battle 1778, leaving only a brother DAVID AUSTIN who died about close of war, leaving 6 sons and 2 daughters.

1. MARY marr ___JENKINS
2. CHARLES S.
3. HOLMES, "eldest son"
4. SAMUEL
5. J___ marr RUTH___

(various deeds 1805 to 1811 mentioned this case in court in Oct 181-

I have no idea where he found this book, and don't see any way for it to help you, but because it contains the names of DAVID & JEREMIAH, am sending it along.

I have found the name HOLMES AUSTIN once, and he received some land for Revolutionary War service. He belonged to the JOHN AUSTIN of Greenwich, Conn. There was a break in his line.

MRS. JANET AUSTIN CURTIS
3329 Santa Clara, S.E.
Albuquerque, New Mexico 97106

Dear MRS. CURTIS:

Can you help me prove that MABEL AUSTIN, born January 6, 1782, Barkhamsted, Conn., daughter of JAMES & HANNAH (WILDER) AUSTIN of Barkhamsted and Ontario and Genessee Counties, New York, is the same MABEL AUSTIN who married JEDEDIAH CROSS, at Gorham, New York about 1796?

I misplaced her letter and just recently came across it.

To explain - In October 1974 MRS. MOORE replied to a query I had placed in the 'Review', the magazine of the Colonial Dames XVII Century, concerning the parentage of MABEL (AUSTIN) CROSBY. She wrote that I would find the family record of JAMES AUSTIN on page 81 of the 'Descendants of RICHARD AUSTIN of Charlestown, Mass., 1638'. I bought the book and found on page 504 the notation 'MABEL m. CROSBY'.

I wrote the DAR and ordered a paper from JAMES AUSTIN through his daughter MABEL. The reply was that the only papers showing descent from JAMES AUSTIN had been filed through his daughters HANNAH & LUCINDA (who married AARON BISSELL). I ordered copies of papers through both HANNAH & LUCINDA. LUCINDA'S paper shows that MABEL married '? CROSBY', while HANNAH'S paper shows that MABEL married a 'JED CROSBY'.

I wrote both ladies whose papers I received. One never answered, but my letter was not returned by the post office. The other answered, but was not able to help me. Both her Mother and Grandmother had been members of the DAR and she just copied their papers.

I was very fortunate that the former Registrar General of the DAR is a friend of mine, and she searched the files at the DAR in Washington, but did not find anything to prove that JAMES AUSTIN'S daughter married JEDEDIAH CROSBY.

MABEL CROSBY was appointed Administratrix of HANNAH AUSTIN'S estate - BUT - the petition asking for her appointment stated that HANNAH AUSTIN 'left no father, mother (and HANNAH was 93 years old) or brother (didn't mention sons or daughters) but left two sisters, MABEL CROSBY, the petitioner and POLLY ALLEN'. POLLY died after HANNAH, but before the petition was filed.

The inventory of HANNAH AUSTIN'S estate, contained in the probate file at the Genessee County Courthouse, lists a Bible. I imagine the births of the children and their marriages were entered in the Bible family record pages. Do you know what happened to the Bible - who has it?

Page 132

Janet Austin Curtis' States Notebook – New York, Part 2 of 3
AFAOA Archive Document Series

I am also puzzled about JAMES & HANNAH'S children. MRS. MOORE'S book and the two DAR papers do not list exactly the same children. MRS. MOORE'S book lists them as follows on page 81:

Children:

1. MOLLY b Oct 3, 1780
2. MABEL b Jan 6, 1782
3. LUCINDA b Aug 7, 1783
4. WILLIAM b Feb 6, 1785 Barkhamsted

1. HANNAH m. Dr. OREN LEE, res. Bergen, N.Y.

Then on page 503, after giving HANNAH WILDER'S birthdate and continuing on page 504:

Children:

3. LUCINDA m. AARON BISSEL
5. BETSEY, m. JOHN, ALLEN BRISTIL
6. JOSEPH, b July 16, 1796
7. MABEL, m. Crosby

LUCINDA'S DAR paper lists the first 4 and their birthdates, and shows MABEL married '? CROSBY', & LUCINDA marr AARON BISSEL. In addition, her paper lists BETSEY (no birthdate) marr JOHN ALLEN in Bristol, N.Y.; HANNAH (no birthdate) marr DR. OREN LEE; JOSEPH, b July 16, 1745 (evidently an error.)

HANNAH'S DAR paper lists the following children (no birthdates for any of them):

WILLIAM
JOSEPH JAMES
MABEL marr JED CROSBY
POLLY marr NATHAN ALLEN
HANNAH marr OREN LEE
LUCINDA marr AARON BISSELL

With 'BETSEY' & 'POLLY' being nicknames, were they the same person, and, if so, there is a difference in the husband's name. As I wrote on the other page, MABEL CROSBY and POLLY ALLEN are named as sisters in the petition.

I have gathered a lot of data on JAMES & HANNAH'S ancestors for several generations but I can't do anything with it until I can prove that their daughter MABEL was the MABEL AUSTIN who married JEDEDIAH CROSBY.

If you can help me prove this, I will be so very, very grateful.

Do let me hear from you - even if you can't help me with my problem.

Sincerely,
(Miss) HELEN E. HOFFMAN

Re: Estate of Rosalie Wells Hayward Smith

Dear MRS. CURTIS:

I am representing the executor of the will of the person named above, and I am presently trying to locate certain relatives of hers.

She was the niece of MRS. SUSAN M. HAYWARD AUSTIN who died on December 11, 1929, a resident of the town of Waterford, in the State of New York. Concerning SUSAN AUSTIN, I have no other information.

I came upon your note of August, 1964, inserted in the manuscript volume prepared by EUGENE K. AUSTIN which relates to the Austin Family in America. Your note states that you have data on many branches of the AUSTIN family not contained in the manuscript of MR. E. K. AUSTIN. I also observed at page 129 of the E. K. AUSTIN manuscript that there are two AUSTIN families not connected with his immediate family, one from Rhode Island and the other from the northwestern part of Connecticut.

In the history of Waterford, New York I found a reference to JAMES M. AUSTIN, Doctor of Medicine. He was identified as the First Master of "Clinton Lodge No. 140, Free and Accepted Masons organized December 27, 1848". I conjecture that SUSAN HAYWARD AUSTIN married into the family of Dr. JAMES M. AUSTIN of Waterford, but as you will appreciate, this is at present sheer guesswork.

My particular inquiry to you is whether you have any information about the AUSTINS of Waterford, New York. I should be most appreciative if you would send me such information as you might have, bearing on this family.

Thanking you for your considerate attention to this inquiry, I am Sincerely yours,

/s/ JAMES N. VAUGHAN

I was excited to receive the Austin Families Association of America, Inc. Newsletter. I had been hoping to hear from you as I would like to attend the north east area reunion this year. I am glad it is as close as Cortland, NY (110 miles).

You asked me to update our records so I am enclosing a family group sheet and pedigree chart. I recently came into possession of my grandmother's (MRS. CHARLES H. AUSTIN) family Bible containing many records. A $3.00 check is also enclosed for dues to help with mailing costs.

Hope to see you this summer and keep up the good work. We will be waiting to receive the new membership booklet.

You might also write to VICTOR JEAN AUSTIN, 4057 No. Main St., Scio, N.Y., 14880.

Thank you.

Sincerely Yours,
/s/ CHARLES G. AUSTIN

Dear MRS. CURTIS

Here are a few items I have collected, and hope they may be of some value to you.

We went down into Otsego County over 5/ 31, but added very little. As we ran into AUSTINS, took the info off for you.

Am not a good writer, so you may not hear from me until I have something more - so think nothing of it.
Sincerely,

/s/ EDNA M. FERRIS

Buffalo Evening News

Llewellyn C. Austin Dies; Long Associated with Printing Trade

Llewellyn C. Austin, 59, of 140 Buffalo St., Hamburg, died early Friday Nov 7, 1952 in his home after an illness of several months. For the past 30 years he was shop foreman of the South Buffalo News and was active up to the time of his illness in Masonic circles.

Born in Bliss, he had lived in Hamburg for six years. From 1926 to 1946 he lived in Lackawanna. He became an apprentice printer as a young man with the Arcade Herald, where he remained for two years. He then went to the Oneonta Star for three years and finally came to Buffalo to work on the old Buffalo Express for about five years. In 1923 he went to the South Buffalo News. He was married to Anna M. Blass in 1923.

The AUSTINS are almost extinct in the Bennington area. In fact, unless there is an immigration by folks with the name of Austin to that Wyoming County community, it's destined to be without an Austin some time in the future since its last two residents are two bachelors.

But that wasn't always the case in Bennington. Among the early settlers of the town were three Austin brothers from New England, who went there in 1825, settled, built farms, and raised large families.

Old-timers will way that at one time, some six or seven decades ago, about half the population of Bennington was named Austin.

In those days, a stranger walking along the street in Bennington could be half sure of being correct if he greeted a native with the expression: "Howdy, Austin".
