Benjamin Turney 1, was first at Concord, Mass, where the birth of three children were recorded, namely

- Rebecca b. 16 Feb. 1640
- Sarah 11 Dec. 1641
- Ruth 28 Jan. 1644

He was made a freeman 2 June 1641; removed to Fairfield soon after and there had son Benjamin and other children. He died 1648. His inventory was made 6 June 1648 at which time the record of his children was: Mary 17 yrs old; Robert 15; Judith 13; Ann 11; Rebecca 8; Sarah 6; Ruth 4; Benjamin 3.

Savage says that his widow Mary, who was probably the mother of all his children, m. Joseph Middlebrook, who had also removed from Concord to Fairfield. His dau. Mary, m Nathaniel Seely and Rebecca m. Stephen Sherwood of Greenwich. The older ch. were probably born in England.

Barlow

John Barlow (1) was one of the earliest settlers of Fairfield. He owned the lot next SW of Roger Ludlow, on the Ludlow Square. He sold this place to Thomas Morehouse before 1653 and settled on the beautiful plain, running northwest of the Ludlow Square and Concord Field, which in honor of his name was called Barlow's Plain. He was possessed of a large estate. His will is dated 28 Mar. 1674, in which he mentions wife Ann. D. before Feb 25, 1685. Children:

John Lowthroppe[Lowthorpe]

Early in the 16th century he was living in Cherry Burton, a parish about 4 miles from Lowthorpe. He was, though belonging to a junior branch of the family, a gentleman of quite extensive landed estates, both in Cherry Burton and in various other parts of the country. In the 37th yr. of the reign of Henry 8th he appears on a Yorkshire subsidy roll assessed twice as much as any other inhabitant of the parish. This John Lowthroppe had a son Robert who married Ellen.

Robert and Ellen Lowthroppe

He succeeded to the estate of his father in Cherry Burton and died in 1558. The names of their children preserved to us in his will are:

1. Thomas, m. Mary (next in line)
2. Elizabeth
3. Isabell

1655, May 25. He was to be paid the money due him from the colony, out of the first fines taken or rate made, and was to be allowed twelve in the 100 for his forbearance. On the same date he was one of those appointed by the Court of Commissioners to keep a house of entertainment. A convenient sign was to be set out at the most perspicuous place of said house to give notice to strangers.

1656 Commissioner

1656, May 23. A debt to him of 6 Pounds, from the colony was paid.

1659, Aug. 23 He having complained concerning the remainder of 7 pounds, 10 s that an Indian named Juissuck-quoanch owed him, being 5 pounds, 10 s, the court warned said Indian that if he do it not the court will take a speedy course to force him to do right, which will prove troublesome and chargeable.

Perhaps Benjamin Griffin, who was one of those who had 5000 acres granted (1677, Oct. 31), to be called East Greenwich, was a son of Robert. This Benjamin was resident at Newport in 1677.

Philip, Methodist clergyman b. Ballygaran, Ireland 21 Sept 1729; d. Camden, NY Aug. 1775. He joined John Wesley's society and became a local preacher at Court-Mattress in 1758. Emigrating to New York in 1760, he began to preach in his own house in 1766 and 2 yrs. later erected a chapel on the site of the present "Old John St. Chu." Being a carpenter by trade, he worked on the building with his own hands and completed the pulpit, in which he preached the sermon of dedication 30 Oct. 1768. This was the first Methodist chapel of the New World and he has been

John Spencer, East Greenwich, RI 1638, was a nephew of John of Newbury.

From Spencer Family History and Genealogy

Land at Newbury, Mass was granted to John Spencer, the uncle in 1638, on the eve of his returning to England from which, and from other circumstances, it is inferred that it (the house) was built later by young John Spencer, the nephew, whose title to the property was perfected under the will by his uncle's death which seems to have occurred in 1647.

Mayhew pg. 298

The chart devoted to "The English Family of Mayhew" (Vol. I pp. 104-116) comprises all that was known by the author at the time of its compilation but several things of material importance have since been discovered to be added to its conclusions. During two recent visits to England the compiler found evidence of the residence of the Governor's ancestors in Tisbury as early as 1520 indicating settlement there at a probably earlier date. Thomas<sup>3</sup> Mayhew, who is considered the grandfather of Gov. Thomas<sup>5</sup>, was taxed for goods", as of the Tithing of Tisbury, in 1540. (Sub. Roll 197/184.) In a deposition dated 30-31 Elizabeth (1589) this Thomas<sup>3</sup> Mayhew deposed at the age of 80 years to events and persons known to him in that parish for the past 63 yrs. and more. This places his birth in 1509, his knowledge of events back to 1517 and it is probable that he was born in Tisbury. Thomas<sup>3</sup> Mayhew (Robert<sup>2</sup>, Simon<sup>1</sup>), third son of a Robert of Dinton, b. abt 1509, called "yoeman", in the putative father of Matthew<sup>4</sup> of Tisbury and doubtless came to be a resident of the latter named parish through the marriage of his father Robert<sup>2</sup> with Joan Bridmore of Tisbury. It is probable that he inherited her estate there while the eldest son and heir retained possession of the Mayhew property in Dinton. He was buried in 1590 at Tisbury. His wife Alice predeceased him in 1586. Matthew<sup>4</sup> Mayhew (Thomas<sup>3</sup> Robert<sup>2</sup> Simon<sup>1</sup>), b. abt 1550, resided in parish of T. and is described in his will as a "yoeman" by which term is meant to be conveyed, legally speaking, a freeholder next under the rank of "gentleman"; for being descended from the line of a third son of an established family he had not the quality that then attached to the eldest branch. Nevertheless he was a man of substance and left to his heirs an estate valued at about $7000 in cash, besides his real property as estimated by our present standards. He was buried 26 Feb. 1613-14 at Tisbury. His marriage to Alice Barter 2 Oct 1587 is on record at Tisbury and by her he had the following ch -

1. Elizabeth<sup>5</sup>, b. 1 May 1589; m. John Gilbert of Denny Sutton 18 Mar. 1612.
2. John, bapt 17 Jan 1591
3. Thomas, bapt 1 Apr. 1593
4. Joan, bapt. 8 Feb. 1595-6
5. Alice, " 16 Dec. 1598; m. Thomas Palmer 17 June 1622
6. Katherine, bapt 15 Mar. 1599-1600
7. Edward, bapt. 24 Apr 1602

Thomas<sup>5</sup> Mayhew (Matheu) bapt. 1 Apr. 1593 at Tisbury, England is the Governor, first of the name in this country, whose personal history has been sufficiently detailed in two preceding volumes. The name of his first wife is not known nor any dates concerning her.

m. (2) Mrs. Jane (Gallion?) Paine, widow of Mr. Thomas Paine, a London merchant abt 1634 (vol II p. 90, Annals of E.[England?]) She was living 15 May 1666, but died before her husband. In London the compiler found references to a Gallion family to which she may have belonged and he has many other English notes relative to the Mayhews which he hopes to follow up in the future.

pg. 300 - During a recent visit of the compiler to England confirmation of this was obtained which shows that this statement is correct. The following is verbatim copy of a record in the "Book of Free Commoners" belonging to the corporation of Southampton:

"Nono die ffebr" 1620 (i.e.1621) Thomas Mayhew late servant and apprentice unto Richard Masey of the Toune and countie of Southampton mrcer havinge well and timely served his apprntiship with his said mr whoe beinge prsent testified to the same and he the said Thomas Mayhewe (desierge to be admitted a free commoner of the said Towne to us his trade of a mrcer in this said Toune and his said Mr likewise desieringe the same) was therefore this present daie admitted and sworren a free commoner accordingly."

An interesting and important statement is therein found which recalls the statement of Thomas Macey of Nantucket (who is said to have emigrated from Chilmark, Co. Wilts), that Gov. Thomas Mayhew was his "honored cousin" (NY Col. Mss. vol 25) and here is found documentary evidence that Thomas Mayhew was an apprentice of Richard Macey, a Southampton merchant. Richard Macey, his master, was a native of Chilmark and in his will of 20 Nov. 1633 he provided for his burial in that parish (Arch. Sarum X.30). Undoubtedly further search would reveal the exact relationship of this Richard to Thomas Macey, the emigrant, and thus show the kinship between the families of Mayhew and Macey.

There seems to be no complete list of signers published but you will find those of the town of Glastonbury listed in "Glastonbury for 200 Years and East Windsor signers in vol 1, History of Ancient Windsor" by H.
